

IHS Clubs 2022-23

Club Schedule

As of 8/29/2022

Club	Description	Advisor	Location	Student contact OR Student Officers	Tuesday (1st and/or 3rd)
Academic Challenge	The Academic Challenge team meets after school two days a week in order to practice and improve their skills for academic competitions against other schools in the area. The club encourages students to enhance and celebrate their academic prowess while providing a sense of camaraderie and a fun, engaging social interaction for some of our brightest students. The team competes at 8-9 local tournaments held on weekends throughout the school year, with the chance to qualify to compete at national championship tournaments.	Ms. Gacevic	H203	Ryan Liu, Andrew Zhou	No meetings during club periods (Practice is twice a week after school)
ACSL (American Computer Science League)	The American Computer Science League is a fun competition that happens four times a year. There are two portions - a coding portion and a short answer. Coding experience is NOT needed for the short answer portion. Join our Google Classroom page for announcements and information or check out the ACSL website. https://www.acsl.org/	Mrs. Cassidy		Join our Google CR page for more information: qlh75eh	(no formal meetings during club periods, look at Google CR for contest info)

Art Club	The purpose of the Art Club is to give students the opportunity to express their artistic ideas and skills and to beautify the school building. The students may work on murals for various spaces throughout the school. Through the murals students are developing skills for projects in the real world. They have to develop ideas for their mural sites and the images must be approved by building and grounds. Students have to determine the materials needed and write a grant for the supplies. They must organize to determine the time and number of students needed to complete the mural and they complete it in a timely manner to satisfy the classroom teacher. Students may also use the club period time to work on art that is fun, meditative and important to them. Many students choose to work on designing ceiling tiles for the art room, which takes usually a semester to complete.	Ms. Tetro	L102	Daniel Kraskin	1st and 3rd

Asian American Club	This club will provide a space and opportunity to learn about and share in the different Asian cultures and celebrate in the Asian American Heritage.	Ms. Grant	H211	Olivia Liu	Meets every club period.
Biology Club	The Biology Club is for students who have a passion for biology and want to further their understanding of it. Club members have the opportunity to participate in the USA Biology Olympiad competition, a national competition that culminates in a test held in February. Students are able to win multiple levels of awards in this competition, and students who receive a passing score will be able to progress into the semifinals. Additionally, the club hopes to invite guest speakers from a variety of scientific backgrounds to discuss their careers to students. The Biology Club is an amazing place for students interested in biology to not only develop their biology skills and prove their skills in many tests held throughout the year but also explore varieties of future careers. Bulldogs for a Cure	The mission of the Bulldogs for a CURE club is to bring awareness to this disorder and educate the community to destigmatize epilepsy. We will work as a team to shine a light on the prevalence of epilepsy through posters and media blasts as well as to encourage our peers to donate to epilepsy charities. We are also partnered with the charity CURE Epilepsy, which is the only research-based organization that works directly with scientists to help develop a cure for this life-threatening disorder.	Ms. Attenello	CPR/Library	Samantha Wilson/Alea Gray	1st and 3rd

Chess Club	Students will engage in this activity through club meetings by playing games with those in their club, as well as having access to puzzles and lessons from club officers or online from chess professionals. The club's mission is to foster a respect and passion for the game of chess and to increase the skills of individual students, as well as the group as a whole. This will be done through in-school tournaments and incentives. The club's direct product will be a swiss-style tournament at multiple points during the school year at IHS, either after school or on a weekend.	Ms. Lentini	H217	Sophie Surgaladze	Both
Community Service Club	The Community Service Club provides students an opportunity to get involved with outside organizations such as, but not limited to, the American Cancer Society and Leukemia and Lymphoma organization. We are also involved with the Special Olympics and participate in their Polar Plunge. In addition, we help out in the Irvington Community.	Ms. Lyons	224	Zoe Rudolf Talia Rudolf
Debate Club	The debate club gives students experience in public speaking and argumentation through current	Ms. Lentini	212	Maren Piersol	1st when needed;

Dungeons and Dragons	Our mission is to support students to find and explore a new hobby that allows them to meet and bond with others over a mutual interest in the Dungeons and Dragons game. They will learn, discuss and play Dungeons and Dragons, developing strategies and having fun!	Ms. Grant	210	Leo McLaughlin	Meets every club period.
Environmental Club	Environmental Club is for students who care about the environment and are looking to work as a group to spread environmental awareness and take steps to better the environment. Each year, students brainstorm to determine where their efforts would have the most value and positive impact. Throughout the year, they collaborate to plan and carry out several environmentally-focused events. These include fundraising and educational events for fellow IHS students as well as those within the wider Irvington community. In addition to events, students devote time to developing and carrying out an initiative that seeks to make Irvington more sustainable and environmentally conscious.	Mr. Lengers	S301		Both
Flag Team	The Flag Team is a performance group used for school and selective community events. Students perform at football games, homecoming parades, pep rallies and special events at various other professional sporting events. Students perform flag routines to accompany the marching band. This club allows students to work together as a team, learn various styles, routines and techniques on the flag to accompany the band, learn skills to march and perform at the same time and take part in various opportunities throughout the school, the community and in professional circles with the marching band. And homeless men and women learn that many mainstream adults and teenagers have commitments and concerns that go beyond their own lives and families." At IHS we collect clothing, toiletries and food donations, prepare food, organize runs, and drive down to NYC to distribute materials.
Mock Trial Not being run for the 22-23 year	Students participate in the annual New York State Mock Trial tournament, sponsored by the NY State Bar Association. Participants' involvement in the program increases their awareness of the importance of law in a democratic society, and of court procedures and the legal system. From participating in the Mock Trial Program, students can develop their skills at public speaking, persuasive writing, active listening, critical reasoning, collaborative learning and teamwork, extemporaneous argument, and self-confidence. Mock Trial is also an excellent vehicle for students to develop 21st century skills and dispositions, as an ideal participant is also a problem solver, flexible thinker, effective communicator and empathetic citizen. Note: This year (2021-22), the Tournament may be virtual, like last year. We will get the official info packet around early December. In the meantime, we meet at club periods and prepare in our free time.
