

Irvington Board of Education 2020-21 Trustee Candidates

For the 2020-21 school year, the Irvington Board of Education has three vacant three year terms. Registered voters of the Irvington UFSD community will be asked to vote for three candidates. Below are the three community members who are running for election. Voters will also have the opportunity to write in candidates.

Brian Friedman

Brian has served one term on the Board of Education and currently is President of the Board. He is a graduate of Irvington High School and returned to Irvington in 2005 with his wife, Amy. They have two daughters who attend Irvington schools, Emma (8th grade) and Jordan (4th grade). He is a lawyer and a partner in the litigation department of Epstein Becker Green with a focus on complex commercial and employment litigation and financial services regulatory matters.

Maura Gedid

Maura Gedid, parent of Luke (3rd) and Allie (5th), has served one term on the board and is currently serving as second Vice President. An entrepreneur, she holds an MBA from New York University.

Jayne Wissner

Jayne Wissner has been a member of the Irvington community for 18 years. Growing up on Long Island, Jayne has lived in the New York metropolitan area her entire life. Jayne moved to Irvington with her husband and two young daughters who are both graduates of the Irvington Schools. Jayne is a retired New York City schoolteacher who also worked as the union representative for her school. Jayne currently works at Literacy Volunteers teaching English to adults.

Note: The biographical narratives were provided by the candidates.

